

Prayer for Humility, Detachment and Unconditional Love

The humble will be exalted and who so ever becomes like a child is received into the kingdom of God.

O Lord who is model of humility, help us to lay down all our pride, envy and aggression. May we not be focused on hurting others with our words and actions. Assist us to spread your love which is selfless.

In a world material that allures towards the worldly passion, dear Jesus keep us all safe and secured from all its vanities. May we not be subject to any of the pelf and passion of this world. Grace us to use the materials accurately so that the love of the father may not depart away from us. May we ever please the Lord Almighty by standing away from all the worldly desires and its pleasure.

“I have loved you with an everlasting love!” O dearest Lord we are saved, and blessed to experience mercy only because of your precious love which you showed on the cross by giving your only son. You handed Him over to the sinful hands. Help us to learn from your pure love and respect every person as Christ did.
